

Asia-Pacific Institute of Management organises an international workshop

Asia-Pacific Institute of Management, Delhi, recently organised a workshop on 'Employability in Global Context'. The workshop was conducted by senior professors from the UK and Sweden. The event was inaugurated by Dr Jakob Svensson, director, human IT, Karlstad University, Sweden; Prof Catherine Climes, director, Career & Employability Centre, University of Northampton, UK; and Prof Rashmi Dravid, Deptt of Computer Sc, University of Northampton, UK. Dr Svensson highlighted the value of social media and its impact on employability, and an interactive session was held by Prof Climes and Prof Dravid.